DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 27-36 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over all of the claims of U.S. Patent No. 6659830. The claims recited most of the elements of the patented claims except for some of the features. However, it would have been obvious to delete the features from the bubble producing assembly for the purpose of making the bubble producing assembly to more economical to produce.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 27-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 3712

Regarding claim 27, it is not clear what the phrase "up to a maximum of four" encompassed. It is not clear if the up to a maximum of four includes 0-4 or 1-4.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 27 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Holman.

Holman teaches in the figures a bubble producing assembly comprising a housing (12), a frame (15), one bubble producing device (45) and the bubble device is positioned in spaced apart manner and on the same plane on the frame (45 is in same plane as 15).

Regarding claim 31, Homan further teaches four bubble producing devices (45).

Claims 27 and 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Constance.

Constance teaches in the figures a bubble producing assembly comprising a housing (fig. 1), a frame (wheels of the toy), one bubble producing device (5) and the bubble device is positioned in spaced apart manner and on the same plane on the frame (fig. 1).

Regarding claim 32, Homan further teaches four legs (the wheels of the car).

Art Unit: 3712

Claims 33, 34 and 36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Neumann.

Neumann teaches in the figures a bubble producing assembly comprising a housing (fig.1), an air generator (33), a bubble producing device (39), a first activator (col. 4, par. 1), a reservoir (27), a pump system (29), a second activator (col. 3, par. 1 and 2, a power source (col. 3, par 3-5).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Holman in view of La Fata et al.

Holman teaches in the figures most of the elements of the claimed invention except for a plurality of ridges. La Fata et al teaches a bubble making wand having ridges 11. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate a plurality of ridges as taught by La Fata to the bubble producing device of Homan for the purpose of increasing the wettable area of the bubble producing device.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 29, 30 and 35 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
